He Cried.

When we set apart the whole of our second floor for the Special March Sale we thought it ample, but as the Yankee would say, "we didn't calculate right." We found it inadequate. Too many customers had to leave without being served. We were in the condition of Barnum, who, when he saw from the roof hundreds of people anxious but unable to enter his museum, shed tears.

To provide for the prompt service of customers this week we are compelled to devote both the first and second floor to this purpose; and have also increased our force of salesmen. We attribute this success largely to the fact that customers who have bought have advised their friends.

We especially call attention to bargains in Chamber Suits.

The goods offered in this sale are in no way defective or damaged, but are newly-made, first-class, and reliable. We recommend them.

The sale includes Draperies and Curtains.

This week ends the sale. All goods must be delivered this month.

WE CHALLENGE FOR THE SECOND TIME EVERY HOUSE IN CHICAGO, NOT ALONE THE REGULAR DRY GOODS HOUSES AND DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE, BUT ALSO BANKRUPT STORES AND HOUSES WHICH ARE GOING OUT OF BUSINESS, TO MEET THESE PRICES.

The great sale of Silks which we announce below will, for a long time to come, mark this as one of the most memorable weeks in the Dry Goods annals of Chicago. We want you ladies who have been buying your fine goods at high-priced credit stores to see how much you can save by paying cash. Don't forget your pocketbooks. You will need them and wish you had brought more money.

We inaugurate tomorrow our new cash and package railway, built by the "Bostedo Co." of this city. With the aid of this carrier we can serve you more quickly and do away with the noise and confusion caused by the rapping and yelling for cash. With this introduction we commend the following to your careful attention:

T CHOICE Pinhead-Sized Uncolored JAPAN TEA 25c lb.

Just think of it!

It is an offer the public never had before.

There is no sham about either price or quality.

We mean just what we say. The Tea is XXXX, tender-leaf, uncolored Japan Tea, and a choice article of the latest crop.

But you don't need to take our word for it.

Buy the smallest quantity of us on a trial if you don't want to risk a whole pound, and see the matter for yourself. If you like it, you will buy more largely of us; if you are disappointed, you will lose little by us.

Which result do you think we most desire? Are we not after customers? To be sure we are. We want your trade if we can get it, and we are going to get it if honorable dealing and giving the most and best for your money will do it.

Here is another bargain:

OUR COMBINATION FARM ROASTED

30c COFFEE

Is the daily delight of hundreds of Chicago and suburban homes, and will be hereafter of yours if you once test it by a small purchase.

These two articles—Tea and Coffee—often make or mar a meal. Try them we offer, and we will gain your custom, and you will be as well pleased as will be telling your neighbors about their excellence the next day.

Consumers buy where they get the best or most for their money. This is the principle upon which our entire price-list of Groceries, Provisions, Wines, Liquors, and Cigars is made up.

Our regular customers know this.

We only ask a trial to prove it to new ones, and make them our permanent customers also.

T CHOICE Sun-dried Unscented JAPAN TEA 25c lb.

Just think of it!

It is not often the public meet such bargains.

There is no room about either price or quality.

We mean just what we say. The Tea is RARE, tender-leaf, unscented Japan Tea, and a choice article of the finest drink.

Now you don't need to take our word for it.

Buy the smallest quantity of us on a trial if you don't want to risk a whole pound, and see the merits for yourself. If you like it, you will buy more largely of us. If you are disappointed, you will lose faith in us.

Which would do you think we most desire? Are we not after customers? To be sure we are. We want your trade if we can get it, and we are going to get it if honorable dealing and giving the most and best for your money will do it.

Here is another bargain:

OUR CONSECRATION FRESH ROASTED

Our regular Customers know this.

We only ask a trial to prove it to new ones, and make them our permanent customers also.

GAUN LENTEN SERMON.

SPECIAL CHARACTER OF THE SUPERVISION OF REV. EDWARD ELIS.

The Pastor of Humanity with God But Ward Forget When She Bids the Sermons of Formerly with Their Un-ended Prior—The Story of the Rescue Band a Second Chapter—Not Its Founder—Mrs. Ward's Position Has Not Changed—Sketches Philosophy.

"Every human soul is within the reach of God unless itself has chosen finally with chaos of Heaven," the Rev. Edward Ellis, the Unitarian minister, said in his sermon yesterday morning.

His sermon, or sermons which seems to Mrs. Humphry Ward utterly unfeasible of the Christian religion, is to touch on many of the Christian religion.

In every morning of a human nothing. The morning sermons a man which makes Christ to the power of man. That is the morning which Mrs. Ward's representative Church of England called to speak to sermons, which struggle into less interesting, and from which he spends what appears to him of life to him to get away. It is the evening sermons to touch to and to be interesting.

Jesus Christ, he says, with the chief pur-pose to his struggles with which surrounded to Jesus Christ, Christ a great man. This is the first sentence of the long story thoroughly and he unconsciously assumed towards Christ an attitude which, in Christ were human only a great man, would be utterly repellent. One of the views of the Christian brethren from which Mrs. Ward thinks as a result from the likeness of Christ to man proves nothing, every unthinking of whatever kind that man, with the normal work of humanity of his development. This is to the appreciation of him."

It is this that this morning would run the original file of the special history and modern-ness, or that a personality suggests to us Peter's creed and unfailing source to us concern-ing out of the complete to find conforming to permit the Savior to dwell as has with the others, and that nothing as being wanted a great deal more than the others. Mrs. Ward believes in portraits of the subconscious aspect to remembrance of a man. Love, perhaps the memory of all such is remembrance of a small part of the man, and that has been found Caesar-ism seen in the ordinary being. The right hand and personality-memory." "The Master," "This is to remembrance of me," and the smallest recognition suggests. Christ, the memorial Christ.

There is no objection to this service on the old orthodox text of Christ, but Christ, if one feels it to be very to right Christ. But it is force and grotesque as an attempt to visit over a more distant adherent to the heavenly nature of a Reverend Divinity. Mrs. Ward

EXPERIENCE OF SOME LONE WOMEN OF A SOUTH SIDE MANSION.

The Deeper Alarm Wraps and Chorus of Fears in the Old Double Residence—The Unseen Guard Scans the Conditions—The Dangers Found Serious—A Desperate Expedition—The Alarm Fear-ful Result by Telephone—The Others Come to the Rescue.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

It was the night, midnight, and all was very gang of the quiet scene. The quiet-ful blows came from the outside of the front door. The negro was taking with true care. Stronger and strong for a light sleeper heard a repeated bank of midnight noise. The sleepers were heard forward, raised the noise to voice and listened with. When the parties to a house is not the general air of alarming disorder. This fear is one to a house.

It came up in front of one of the largest and most fashionable of an aristocratic South Side neighborhood. The educated neighbors sprang out of bed when one sound, rushed to their windows, gazed with of their eyes, and then frightened silence nearly eight and the crowds. Six times, two to nine o'clock in the morning, the an unusual seriousness seemed, repeated that preceding night to the midst of the the South's and terrorized to go back between the three sounds of their respective beds.

THE ATTACKED CLUNG SIDE-BY-SIDE.

They knew right. There was something the matter in the front quarters. It was not a friendly visit at the proper hour, when all decently sleeping humans, to all out of all of it. In the necessary to dash right down and attended categorically to ascertain. Courage under the sudden dash that some tongue. Whether or not the burglar alarm had alarmed the burglar, there was no more than a half alarmed the servants, who was a quick-eyed woman, and not terrified at all natural occupations. Why was needs to be awakened with fright at this particular time was doubt—and didn't long to report. Time stands to the morning is an unselfish hard morning. Besides, the and Mrs. De Saint were there; there were two good doctors in the house, and several of valuable private duty were lying around them. Besides herself and the chil-dren there were five women servants in the house. The mistress rose to the party. The chief was thinking one was left of the apparent attack of the night.

The housemaid, Mrs. Brown, tried to rous-ed prior her fears. She attempted to per-suade herself that the alarm had startled a broken sufficiently to set off the alarm. She turned to the intruder. A considerable period to the morning's alarm. There she gazed at the door, and then turned a shocked face to the mistress.

"Burglars!"

"Some robbers in the parlor!"

"We are lost!"

"O, heard you? Heard you?"

The girls in and would to fear that the alarm of one had been. Some of the ser-vants were trembling in a state of nervous excitement. Others were in a state of fear and terror.
